

The Alamance-Caswell-Rockingham Local Management Entity (ACR-LME) manages services for citizens with mental health, developmental disabilities or substance abuse needs in the tri-county region. The LME contracts and works collaboratively with an array of service providers in Alamance, Caswell, and Rockingham counties to ensure services are available to those in need. Our network of providers is committed to providing quality services, while ensuring that consumer rights are respected and privacy protected.
